

PAAT TECHNICAL AND SCIENTIFIC SERIES

4

SOCIO-ECONOMIC AND CULTURAL FACTORS
IN THE RESEARCH
AND CONTROL
OF TRYPANOSOMIASIS

A PAAT INFORMATION SERVICE PUBLICATION

Contents

Abstract	iii
Chapter 1 INTRODUCTION	1
Chapter 2 ECONOMIC ISSUES IN THE RESEARCH AND CONTROL OF TSETSE AND TRYPANOSOMIASIS	7
Economic analysis of tsetse and trypanosomiasis control	7
Private, public and mixed goods and characteristics of the benefit streams generated by trypanosomiasis control	10
Socio-economic planning and appraisal of tsetse and trypanosomiasis control operations	16
Chapter 3 SOCIOCULTURAL FACTORS AND THE RESEARCH AND CONTROL OF TRYPANOSOMIASIS	19
Background and justification	19
Definitions and models of community participation	20
Selected case studies of community participation in tsetse and trypanosomiasis control	24
Chapter 4 DATA NEEDS	39
Qualitative data	39
Quantitative data	41

Chapter 5
LESSONS OF THE PAST TO INFORM THE FUTURE	43
Factors affecting sustainability of tsetse and trypanosomiasis: individual and community participation	43
Policy issues at the regional/district and national level	48
Chapter 6
ISSUES TO ANTICIPATE	51
Private and individual benefits	51
Free-riding	51
Empowerment	52
Management and organization	53
Equity and gender	53
Monitoring and evaluation	54
Chapter 7
CONCLUDING REMARKS	55
REFERENCES	57