

Feed additives

Russian industry struggles because of regulatory barriers

Mycotoxins

Detecting lesions in slaughterhouses

New proteins

Canola meal as high-protein ingredient in dairy rations

ALL ABOUT FEED

Volume 28 - No. 4 - 2020

INSECTS IN FEED

Industry ready to upscale

CONTENTS ▶▶▶

- 12 Bile acids in feed to relieve fatty liver and ketosis in dairy cows
- 16 Sugarcane by-products: The future feed for animal production
- 18 Raising the phytase podium
- 20 Canola meal in dairy rations
- 22 Mitigating methane production in the rumen
- 24 Supplementing pig diets with xylo-oligomers and xylanase

6 COVER STORY

Insects, an industry that has grown rapidly in recent years and is ready to scale up their production volumes. Despite the many benefits of using insects in feed, the sector is being held back by out-of-date legislation.

14

INTERVIEW

Agrimprove looks at mycotoxin lesions in slaughterhouses. All About Feed talked with product manager Kevin Vanneste.

9 FEED ADDITIVES

Russia is one of the world's biggest feed additive importers, but the regulatory environment has a number of systemic problems