

Report of the
PANEL OF EMINENT EXPERTS ON ETHICS IN
FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

Third session
14–16 September 2005

HA/0041

Contents

v

Abbreviations

1

Introductory note

Establishment and terms of reference

Membership

Organization of work

Documentation

3

Panel considerations, conclusions and recommendations

Ethical issues in fisheries

The ethics of food safety

Ethical issues in food aid

Animal welfare and the intensification of animal production

The ethics of sustainable agricultural intensification

Hunger, malnutrition and the Right to Food Guidelines

Globalization of food and agriculture

Global goods, global services and privatization

Intellectual property rights

7

Elaboration of the substantive issues

Ethical issues in fisheries

The ethics of food adequacy, including food safety

Ethical issues in food aid

Ethical perspectives on animal welfare and the intensification of animal production

The ethics of sustainable agricultural intensification

Ethics, nutrition and the Voluntary Guidelines on the right to food

Ethical perspectives on the globalization of food and agriculture

Global goods, global services and privatization

Ethics and intellectual property rights in food and agriculture

23
Additional issues and trends that give rise to concern

Broad patents on life forms
Data protection/confidentiality

24
Future work of the panel

25
Annexes

1. Terms of Reference
2. Biographies
3. Agenda
4. List of documents

