COVER STORY

4 What keeps you up at night?

NextSpace reached out to six librarians from different types of institutions, who are at different stages in their careers, to get a range of views on the challenges facing the profession.

MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

12 New definition of membership emphasizes the collaborative nature of OCLC

George Needham walks us through the recent changes to “qualifying activities” for membership.

COMMUNITY

14 Meeting the demand for health insurance information

OCLC's WebJunction is helping U.S. public libraries face challenges in providing information about the new Health Insurance Marketplace.

RESEARCH

16 Demystifying Born Digital

OCLC Research conducted two surveys of special collections and archives over the past few years—one in the U.S. and the other in the U.K. and Ireland—in which over 80 percent of respondents indicate the need for education or training regarding born-digital materials.
