

International Trade Forum

Why Services Matter

Issue 2/2005

In this issue:

African Financial Services

Redefining Tourism

Business Interests in Service Talks

The Potential of Disabled Professionals

International Trade Centre
UNCTAD/WTO

<http://www.tradeforum.org>

Features

Services: Challenges & Solutions

- 4 Why Services Matter for Development
by ITC staff
- 8 Identifying Business Interests in WTO Services Talks
by Linda Schmid, ITC
- 10 Why Coalitions?
by Doreen Conrad, ITC
- 11 Selling a Promise
by ITC staff
- 13 Raising Awareness Can Grow Trade in Services
by Dianna Rienstra, Phoenix Ink Communications
- 15 Promoting Exports of Services: How to Make it Happen
by Dorothy Riddle, Service-Growth Consultants
- 17 Trade Forum's Choice: Resources for Trade in Services
by Natalie Domeisen and Prema de Sousa, ITC
- 20 Trade in Services: Awareness, the First Step
by ITC staff

Services: Sectors with Potential

- 22 Redefining Tourism
by Doreen Conrad and Emmanuel Barreto, ITC
- 24 Tourism: Community Development Pays Back
by Emmanuel Barreto, ITC
- 26 New Directions for African Financial Services
by James French, Pangea Global Financial Solutions
- 28 Business and Professional Services: Fast-growing Markets
by Dorothy Riddle, Service-Growth Consultants

Services: New Perspectives

- 29 Tapping the Potential of Professionals with Disabilities
by Fernando Botelho
- 31 How Services Move Goods
by Prema de Sousa, ITC

ITC News

- 32 From Negotiations to Export Capacity, ITC Builds Bridges: A Report on ITC's Annual Meeting
by Natalie Domeisen, ITC
- 34 ITC: Developing Trade Now and in the Future
by J. Denis Bélisle, ITC Executive Director

ITC News In Brief

- 37: Rwanda scents new export opportunity

ITC Information Products

- 37: International Trade Bulletins. 37: About International Trade Forum. 37: Subscriptions and Reprints. 37: New Books and Technical Papers. 37: Ordering ITC Publications.